Hello families,

I write this afternoon with a quick update. Since KinderCare's initial March 20 communication to close their Beaver Beginnings operation, we've been working to assess personnel/staffing, finances, timeline, closure duration, licensing, and many other logistics to ascertain feasibility of operating early care and education (ECE) in our facility. We expect that the Family Resource Center (FRC) will operate an ECE center in the facility that currently houses Beaver Beginnings. By early next week, we hope to have a detailed plan to share with you.

Once the plan has been shared, we will schedule a forum to address any questions you may have. We know that any change in ECE settings for children and families comes with many questions. We look forward to meeting with you to talk those through. In the meantime, please continue to check the FAQ page on the FRC website.

~all the best,
Amy
