Dear Community

We are all in a special situation right now that may bring a lot of uncertainties into our lives. We, the library staff, hope that everyone is staying safe and healthy. Our hearts and minds are with you all.

If you are looking for books and activities to keep you and your family engaged, the library website is constantly updating with on-line resources, as well as information on community resources. Please visit www.cbcppl.net

You can read ebooks, download audiobooks and magazines, or watch steaming video all from the comfort of your home with your library card. There are also many on-line resources from other organizations that are made available for families during this period of time. For information on these resources, please go to www.cbcppl.net/kids and click on the image:

Dia : Diversity in Action

El día de los niños, el día de los libros (Children's Day / Book Day) is a day created by librarians and educators as a celebration of childhood and bilingual literacy. It emphasizes the importance of advocating literacy for every child regardless of linguistic and cultural background. The celebration is cross-cultural and intergenerational. In the words of one of the founders of this annual event, author Pat Mora: "April 30th has become a day for remembering the power of words and books in the lives of our young people and for honoring all the languages spoken in the homes of this country. One in five of our school children comes from a home in which a language other than English is spoken. By honoring these languages, we celebrate our linguistic and cultural wealth."

Celebrate your diversity in your family and community!

Resources for Parents, Caregivers and Educators

Want to learn another language? The library has language learning materials for a variety of languages.

They are available in various formats, including books, CDs, DVDs, books with CDs, tablets, and online streaming videos.

If you need assistance locating these materials, please ask, and we'll be happy to show you.

Diversity in Picture Books

Did You Know?

Books can act as a reflection and a window for a reader. Books that reflect include representations of people, place or situations that the reader can relate to. Books that open a window into a new world for a reader gives him or her a glimpse into a new idea, place, people, situation that the reader might not have encountered before.

What Can You Do?

When reading books to your children, look for books that include diversity. Let children be curious, and answer questions with an open mind and with the child's age in mind.

CBCPL Storytimes

Suspended until further notice due to COVID-19.

Please continue to read to your child or children throughout the closure. Remember:

Talk
Sing
Read
Write
Play

Makes a reader everyday!

Early Literacy Activity

Cleaning up is a necessary skill and most young children enjoy being helpful. Make clean up time fun and promote learning at the same time!

- Can you pick up all the square (shape) / red (color) blocks?
- Can you pick up toys while hopping like a kangaroo?
- Can you line up all the animals from the smallest to the largest and march them into the box?
- Label boxes with pictures so that your child has to sort the toys into the appropriate containers. Give points for the effort and reward with anything you want.
- Sing while you clean—
Clean up, clean up,
everybody get some toys,
Clean up, clean up,
all the little girls and boys.
Clean up, clean up,
everybody do your share,
Clean up, clean up,
everybody, everywhere!

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

- Obtain a free reading log from the library for any child who is not yet attending kindergarten, or download the mobile app “1000 books before kindergarten” by 1000 Books Foundation.
- For the paper reading log - Cross off or color in 1 circle for each book read. It's ok to count a book more than once if it is read several times.
- There are 100 circles on each paper reading log.
- When you complete a log, show or tell the youth services librarian at any branch library how many books you have read. You can get additional logs to continue tracking.
- If you are using the mobile app for tracking, show a youth services librarian how many books you have read.
- Your child will receive a reward for participating and reaching these milestones at any branch library:
100 books, 500 books, and 1000 books read

Spring Rhyme

Five Little Flowers

Five little flowers standing in the sun

(hold up 1 hand)

They nod their heads one by one.

(bend down 1 finger at a time)

Down, down, down, came a gentle rain.

(flutter fingers from top to bottom)

Five little flowers lifted up their heads again!

(hold up a fist, raise fingers 1 by 1 and count)

1, 2, 3, 4, 5
